

Good Hard Luck

Tom W. Bell*

Play moderately, with feeling.

NB: See the end of the song for a guide to the obscure chords.

Intro: G D Am7 D7 (opposite of last four chords of song)

Verse 1:

G C
You know I've had some good hard luck.

G D7
You know, that why I sound so blue.

G C
I want to let my heart run amok.

G D
I want to send it runnin' to you.

Chorus:

Am E
We can think about it, dream about it,

Am Dm7
sing about it, scream about it.

Am E
We can run up to it, climb on top it,

Am E7
dance around it, fall into it.

Primary bridge:

F Fadd9 F Am E
F Fadd9 F Am D7

Verse 2:

I want to share my hard good luck.
You know, that's why I'm singin' to you.
I'll give your heartstrings a good hard pluck.
And make your beat beat something new.

Chorus

Bridge instrumental (can skip lines 4-7 to save time, in performance):

Verse 3:

You know I've won some good hard luck.
I'd love, my love, to share it with you.
Come, let's let our hearts run amok.
Come, let's cast them, into the blue. . .
