Words and Music (C) 2013 Tom W. Bell.

v. 2013.04.15

Intro

D A-9 D A-9 C G

Verse 1

D A-9 D A-9 C G
I waited here through lonely years with open arms.

D A-9 D A-9 C E
No one to see—no one to sing—my wonders, my charm.

Verse 2

Came to my sea, you; swam into me and claimed me in your name. (Side-by) side by the shore, together and more—until you made me change,

Transition

C E7 E77 E
Into something strange.

Refrain

A-9 F
I gave you a safe haven.

G E7
You give me use and care.

A-9 F
A fair return for saving you?

E Am
Some things just don't com- pare.

I gave you all I had to give.
You give me what you will.
I've got no say; you'll have your way,
Until, until, until.

E7 E77 E
Un- til, until

Verse 3

Wrapped me in stone. You call that a home? A servant to your guests.
Dressed me in gold, a beauty that's sold. I'd rather be undressed.

Transition

Locks undone, untressed.

Refrain

Bridge

D Gbar C G
Free to let my ocean rage. Your history lost down to the page.

D Gbar C E7 E77 EE77 E
Free from waste and toil and sin. Free to sleep a- lone again. . . .

Refrain (except for last line)

Coda (repeating second-to-last last line of refrain)

Until, until, until.

E7 E77 EE77 E D A-9 C F Am
Un- til, until. . . .
